GOTHPOINT TUESDAY

You have to be in it, to win it! You have to be a member and you have to be here... Tuesday 5 July that is. This is the launch date for our GothPoint Tuesday Lucky Roll-Over Night with £250.00 in the jackpot to be won. All GothPoint members, including new recruits, will be invited to a special VIP party upstairs in our Thomas Nelson Suite. We'll give you the full VIP treatment with plenty of champagne, superb live music and more fantastic prizes to be won, including flights for two to Gothenburg, Sweden. BUT... if you are not here on the night and your number is drawn, you loose... it's a roll-over till the following Tuesday with £100.00 being added to the jackpot. It's that simple! So you have to be in it, to win it!

SWEDEN DAY

The Lord Mayor of Sweden – Jorgen Linder – officially opened the Lord Mayors bar on July 23rd 2003. To honour this occasion and the trade links between Scotland and Sweden as well as being the Mecca of our Gothenburg Principles, we have crowned this day Sweden Day at the Goth. Knowing that our International Cuisine Nights are a roaring success, we are holding a Swedish Buffet on the Friday evening, starting at 7:30pm, tickets cost £10.00pp. On Sweden Day, itself we will have our delicious rendition of the Swedish Smorgasbord on special in the Bistro. Swedish Ale will also be available to purchase in the James Fewell Bar. If you have any Swedish connections (IKEA shopping enthusiasts qualify), Swedish friends or family or are interested in trying out some Swedish fare, please contact Adele to reserve a table.

Murals Murals Murals

At long last the Salters Mural has found a home. The Prestonpans Co-op has kindly allowed us to house the Salters Mural adjacent to Tom Ewings "Co-op" Mural in the Co-op car park. The Salters Mural was painted by Kate Hunter and was displayed on the Coffee House wall in July 2003 for a short time, so many people will be familiar with this beautifully painted mural and will be able to view it once again. Many thanks to the Prestonpans Co-op for their contribution to the Prestoungrange Arts Festival and the murals project.

We have another 5 or so murals coming to completion or commencing in the next couple of months in Prestonpans, so look out for

Pride of Panners – the stone staircase in the Goth

Redburn Dairy – corner of Redburn Road and High Street

Bowlers & Bing Boys – the Prestongrange Bowling Club

Multi-Cultural Food – SWS Wall facing into the Co-op Car Park

School Childrens Mural – the beach
