About the Author

Annemarie Allan was born in Edinburgh and lives in Prestonpans. Her mother's family were part of the mining community at Morison's Haven and she has always had a strong interest in the history of the local area. After taking a degree in Literature at Stirling University she worked as a teacher, librarian and information officer with the Scottish Arts Council. She now works as a freelance researcher/writer in particular as Editor of this Prestoungrange Historical Series. She was a major contributor to the Prestonpans Section of the Millennium Statistical Account of East Lothian published in 2004.
